

Spring Festival Rhymes

At Jardins de la Pau we celebrate literature and arts every single day, week and month of the year. Together with all our participants and team members with a passion for books (especially poetry), we bring you the chance to be El Prat's Shakespeare for one day. With Sant Jordi just wrapped up a few weeks ago, let's keep the poetry flame alive and celebrate one of the greatest English poets of all times, William Shakespeare, born 459 years ago.

1.Fill in the gaps and personalize the poems we've proposed to you!
After that, give them a title.

Title:

.....

Long walks at night
that's what's ..... for the .....
looking into windows
watching tired .....
trying to fight off
their annoying .....

Title:

.....

Once, when I was young and.....,
Someone made me .....-
Broke my brittle heart in two;
And that is very .....

Love is an unlucky .....,

Love is but a curse.
Once there was a heart I broke;
And that, I think, is worse .

1. Create your very own poem. Draw a picture of it.
